for assistance within
of the requesting shall be entirely with the agency as to what personnel are or not, in any event, safety and protection of the requesting agency.

2.2 Each of the agencies agree to answer calls of the other agency, subject to Approval of each call by the coordinator of the answering agency as set forth in paragraph 2.1 above, without charge therefore, and with the express understanding that personnel and equipment of said answering agency shall be subject only to the liability, workman's compensation, and/or insurance of the answering agency. The equipment and employees of the answering agency shall at all times be under the supervision and control of the coordinator of the requesting agency, or his/her designated assistant.

2.3 Nothing in this agreement shall be construed to create, alter, or delegate the authority of any designated Emergency Response Authority.

3.0 ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS:

3.1 Any request for aid hereunder shall include a clear statement of the Amount and type of equipment and personnel requested, and shall specify the location to which the equipment and personnel are to be dispatched, however, the amount and type of equipment and number of personnel to be furnished shall be determined by a representative of the answering agency.

3.2 The answering agency shall report to the on-scene coordinator in-charge of the requesting agency at the location to which the equipment and personnel is dispatched and shall coordinate all activities with that official. The resources or facilities that are assigned shall be under the immediate supervision of the designated answering agency.

3.3 An answering agency will be released by requesting agency when the services of the answering agency are no longer required or when the answering agency is needed within the area for which it normally provides emergency public services.

3.4 The equipment and personnel of each of the agencies while engaged in performing any mutual aid service, activity or undertaking under the provisions of this Agreement, shall have and retain all rights, privileges and immunity of and be deemed to be engaged in the service and employment of such agency, notwithstanding that such mutual aid service is being performed in or for that other agency.

3.5 If at any time the answering agency responds to a mutual aid call where requesting agency is not at the scene, the answering agency will follow their Standard Operating Procedures. However, the answering agency will contact the requesting agency's base for further orders and/or destination site.

3.6 Each agency waives all claims against the other agency for compensation for any loss, damage, personal injury or death sustained by personnel, which occurs as a consequence of the performance of this agreement.

- 3.7 This agreement shall become effective upon the approval and signature by authorized representatives of the agencies hereto and shall continue until such time as any agency gives sixty (60) days advance written notice to the other agencies of its intention to terminate this Agreement.
- 3.8 This Agreement may be supplemented with various exhibits to be alphabetically designated in chronological order of adoption and signed by the respective agencies. These exhibits may set forth specific areas of first response, additional protocol areas of first response, additional protocol, and other communications and procedural matters.
